

EXHIBIT PROSPECTUS OCCUPY ART ~ BEYOND WALL STREET

DONKEY MILL ART CENTER

OCCUPY ART

An unbiased exhibit open to all, intended to incite healthy, creative dialog inclusive of all points of view on the subject of the movement.

Description:

The Donkey Mill Art Center (DMAC) and Volcano Art Center (VAC) open their hearts, minds and walls to residents and visitors inspired by the Occupy Wall Street movement that began in New York City on September 17, 2011 and has since swept across many states and countries. These partnering arts organizations offer a place for healthy communication about socially relevant issues, using art as a vehicle for expression.

Important Dates:

Intake for the DMAC exhibition will begin December 29, 2011 through January 3, 2012

The Donkey Mill Art Center will host an exhibition called "OCCUPY ART ~ BEYOND WALL STREET" January 10, 2012 through February 11, 2012

At Volcano Art Center, a sister exhibition "OCCUPY ART" will be open to the public December 2-9, 2011

Intake for the VAC exhibition has closed.

Entry Fee: Free

Eligibility:

This exhibit seeks work that articulates public opinion respectfully and thoughtfully. Open to all ages, experiences and backgrounds. Original art work in all media will be considered; including paintings, sculpture, photography, poetry, writing, performance or movement. Artwork must be complete and ready to display (on hangers or in frames, etc.). Multiple entries may be submitted, with up to 3 chosen per artist.

Entry Form:

Please fill out an entry form completely. Print or type all information and turn in with artwork. All artwork must be accompanied by its own tag with Title, Artist, Medium and Trade Value (if desired).

Trade:

Due to the nature of this exhibit, artwork may not be available for purchase. It may, however, be listed as "for trade" directly from the creator and must be labeled as "contact artist for trade details".
